Smuttnose Portsmouth Lager Portsmouth, NH

A full-flavored, medium bodied continental-style beer – deep golden in color, featuring a mouth-pleasing maltiness subtle balanced with spicy imported Saaz hops.

Andrew's Pale Ale Lincolnville, ME

Delicious, medium-bodied ale, with bright flavors – this ale is rich (but not heavy), moderately hopped, with just the right balance of fruit and malt.

Dogfish Head 60 Minute IPA Milton, DE

A session India Pale Ale brewed with warrior, Amarillo & “mystery hop X.”
A powerful east coast I.P.A. with a lot of citrusy hop character.

Sheepscot Pemaquid Ale Whitefield, ME

This Scottish style ale pours a deep amber, with a slight haze, and a long lasting off-white head. Aroma is nutty, with smooth sweet caramel malts, hints of toffee, and a tea-like hop hint.

Doc's Draft Hard Apple Cider Hudson Valley, NY

This cider is semi-dry and wonderfully effervescent with a remarkably fresh apple nose. Its crisp, fruit forward taste and a clean, refreshing finish, have won this cider countless awards and praise.

Geary's Hampshire Special Ale Portland, ME

A huge toasted malt flavor balanced by assertive hoppiness. The finish is long and lingering with the malt and hop notes blending with alcohol warmth.

Gritty's Halloween Ale Portland, ME

This robust brew has a deep amber color, a bold, malty palate and a well-rounded finish. The perfect beer for a crisp autumn day.

Arcadia Jaw-jacker Ale Battle Creek, MI

This Autumn ale balances their finest malted barley with a bit-o-wheat and is complimented with a citrus hop kick and just the right amount of cinnamon, nutmeg, and allspice.

Allagash Dubbel Portland, ME

Allagash Dubbel boasts a dark mahogany color with ruby hues and a complex malty taste. The finish is dry with subtle hints of chocolate and nuts.

Guinness Stout Ireland

Guinness is the classic stout that pours black with a thick creamy head. It is a soft, slightly sour beer with a strong roast barley element (coffee-like).
